

positions in this State in the last twelve months.

What has happened in this single State alone in the last year in the matter of "increased cost of living" is that, June 30, there were nearly 73,000 more savings bank accounts than on the corresponding date a year before. There were larger deposits by $4,672,222, with total savings bank deposits of $3,166,091,444. The interest paid to those depositors in the year was $8,076,168, or more than three million dollars a month.

A comparison of savings-banks deposits in New York alone with the total savings-banks deposits of the whole United States in the "glorious Democratic year of 1894," gives an idea whether the general public has to spend more than its increased earnings on its "increased cost of living." In 1894 the total savings banks deposits in the whole United States had been cut down by the Democratic "prosperity share" to $7,473,961,220, while, on June 30 last, the New York savings banks deposits alone had risen to $1,166,091,444. In 1903, the savings banks deposits of New England were $1,045,222,344. This added to New York's present deposits, gives the following comparison:

The whole country in the Democratic period of 1894 only had $1,747,861,280.

New York and New England alone, in 1904, have $2,214,413,758.

New York and New England alone have half a billion more savings banks deposits today than the whole United States had in 1894. No doubt the Belmont-Parker organs can "show" that the American people are spending more on their necessities, cost of living than they are getting from increased incomes when they are saving more money out of their earnings today than they ever saved before; when the savings banks depositors of New York and New England put aside more money today, millions on millions, than those of the whole country did in the Democratic period of "the least cost of living."

Commenting on the foregoing, the Press says: "When Judge Parker (who twice voted to put those savings banks deposits on a silver basis,) hears from the American people at the polls, he will need to revise his views of what the people of the United States think of their prosperity in the bank, as against the theories of the stump. He will need to revise them, as he has found it necessary for his purposes to revise his opinion that those gold dollars in the savings banks should be cut into half-dollars."

GEN. WEAVER DECLINES.
NOT RUNNING FOR CONGRESS.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)
COLFAX (Iowa) Aug. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Gen. J. B. Weaver has declined to allow his name to be presented to the Democratic Congress District convention to oppose John M. Lacey, the Republican incumbent.

DELAWARE REPUBLICAN.
ALLER CONFIDENT OF IT.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Senator Aller of Delaware called at the White House today and went over the situation in his State with the President. He believes that the Addicks and anti-Addicks factions will get together successfully in the approaching conventions and predicts the Republicans will carry Delaware by 50,000 plurality.

WHITEHORN BAILEY DIFFERS.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
ESOPUS (N. Y.) Aug. 4.—Almost all of Judge Parker's visitors today were from the South. Senator James W. Whitehorn gave the impression that he regarded the coming campaign as crucial in New York, Indiana and New Jersey.

"I differ with all of my colleagues," said, "as to the importance of the States in their respective columns. There are States which they call doubtful which I believe to be surely Democratic and States that they call certain which I believe to be surely Republican."

The Senator would not particularize as to what he had in mind.

HOGG BRISTLES AT PARKER.

Texan Calls the New Yorker a "Lockjawed Judge" and is Much Disgusted.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)
DALLAS (Tex.) Aug. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Former Governor Hogg has set all the Texas politicians by the ears because of the speech which he delivered at the State Democratic Convention in Houston last Tuesday. Ex-Gov. Hogg praised, President Roosevelt and expressed contempt for Parker. He said he was going to vote for Parker, because Parker is the Democratic nominee. "But," he asked, sarcastically and contemptuously, "who is Parker? Why, he is that lockjawed judge who unlocked his jaw when the convention could not help itself."

He said many other contemptuous things, among them: "Harmony? By gatlings, I'm suffocating with harmony. Let's have more discussion and less harmony, for I tell you, boys, that there is something up which calls me from my farm solitude, and I warn you of it."

Ex-Gov. Hogg accompanied his speech with facial contortions to show his disgust. He declared he "differed with Roosevelt politically, but that Roosevelt was honest and courageous."

The speech has created more of a sensation than any other delivered in Texas during the last ten years. State Chairman Lyon of the Texas Republican Executive Committee today announced that he will have the speech printed as a campaign document and circulated by the thousands in and outside of Texas.

"BUSTING" TAMMANY.

Parker's Disreputable Lieutenants Fall Out Over Boobie Grabs and Murphy May Yet Knife the Democratic Presidential Candidate.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] According to the New York Tribune, Tammany Hall is on the verge of disruption, owing to differences among the leaders regarding Murphy's continued bitter hostility to Parker and the men behind his guns. Personal investigation today by a Times representative confirmed the Tribune story in almost every detail. That the present conditions are likely to prevail until after the national election is practically certain, unless Croker returns from England, resumes his leadership, and Murphy is defeated.

BELMONT, Aug. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] According to the New York Tribune, Tammany Hall is on the verge of disruption, owing to differences among the leaders regarding Murphy's continued bitter hostility to Parker and the men behind his guns. Personal investigation today by a Times representative confirmed the Tribune story in almost every detail.

That the present conditions are likely to prevail until after the national election is practically certain, unless Croker returns from England, resumes his leadership, and Murphy is defeated.

McCarren would be "called down," but some powerful influence, the Internationals, perhaps, has done this, and Murphy is more bitter against Parker today than ever. Win or lose with Parker, Murphy is now in battle for his own political future. Belmont, Hill and McCarren have declared war for his extermination. If McCarren wins for Parker, he will be backed up by all the power of Parker's national administration to erect a new Democratic organization over Tammany's ruins. As it is, Murphy controls practically all the immense city patronage except the Sheriff's office, which is controlled by the Sullivan's. Defeat for Parker nationally will greatly strengthen Murphy locally. His cry has ever been "supremacy in local politics."

MAKE "BIG BILL" TREASURER.
When Murphy was questioned today regarding his attitude toward McClellan, if the latter was appointed chairman of the State Executive Committee, he said, bitterly: "If Pat McCarren is made chairman they might as well make Devery treasurer. They both stand for the same thing. Devery was so vile that Tammany Hall had to kick him out before we could have the face to ask the people to put us in power."

HILL HAS SPLIT THEM.
SHEEHAN'S UP-STATE FIGHT.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)
ALBANY (N. Y.) Aug. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] William F. Sheehan, who is regarded as Parker's confidential manager, is trying to patch up Democratic differences in the counties up-State, where Hill, in his fight for control, has split the party. John J. Cummings, an anti-Hill Democrat and chairman of Onondaga County Committee, and "Little Tim," his brother, are interested financially in many notorious resorts on the East Side. They are also champions of the gambling interests and are regarded as the heads of the greatest mobster syndicate training which Police Commissioner McDonald has been waging war. The Sullivans have pleaded with Murphy to call the police. Murphy, standing with McClellan, who pledged himself to "keep the lid down," has refused to interfere.

M'CARREN'S MISSION.
McCarron, the tool of the gambling interests, the creature of the pool rooms, race track, sugar trust and Standard Oil interests, and known as one of the smartest and most unscrupulous politicians in Greater New York, has been selected as the man to head the fight to endo Murphy and McClellan's New York "wide open" and turn the franchise rights over to Belmont.

GOLD BRICKING" MURPHY.
There is no doubt that Tammany Hall men like Towne and Bourke Cockran are with Murphy. Parker's organization in Onondaga is being planned by Hill men, and it is believed that Murphy wants to be the Democratic candidate for Lieutenant-governor, and is said to favor the idea of harmony. The Hill men say they cannot see how harmony is going to be accomplished without conceding to them what they do not possess, but for which they want to fight—that is, control of the organization.

Hill's friends do not believe that Sheehan will attempt to interfere in any county of the State to their disadvantage. They would vigorously resent any action on his part diminishing their power or opportunity to control the organization. Hill is in view with apprehension this movement in the Parker ranks to help out Tammany sympathizers up-State.

PARKER'S CRISIS.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
TOKIO, Aug. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Japanese are hourly awaiting tidings of victory at Port Arthur with more interest and eagerness than heretofore displayed during the war. From political, strategic and a sentimental point of view, the capture of Port Arthur is of paramount importance to the Japanese. It is known that the Japanese about the besieged city is gradually tightening. The Japanese gunners are proving fire power of diminishing circle, and it is felt here that the critical hour is fast approaching.

VLADIVOSTOK, Aug. 4.—[By Asiatic Cable.] The prize court has decided to confiscate such portion of the cargo of the Portland and Asiatic steamer Arabic as was consigned to Japanese ports, namely 59,000 pounds of flour and the railroad equipment, this portion consisting of less than half the bulk and weight of her cargo, the remainder consisting of 142,500 pounds of flour consigned to Hong Kong. The confiscated portion of the cargo is now being unloaded. As soon as this is completed, the steamer will be released.

Having disposed of the Arabic, the prize court will now take up the case of the ships sunk, four Japanese schooners, a Japanese steamer, the Thea, and the Knight Commander. The Thea, according to the statements of her crew, was chartered at the opening of the war to carry contraband. She visited Moji, Japan, March 12, and had since called at Kobe, Yokohama, Hakodate and other Japanese ports several times. The crew also say that the Japanese freighted twenty German and many more British and American ships with contraband.

JAPANESE TREASURY BILLS.

[By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.] NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—The Japanese consul-general at New York has received a cablegram from the Department of Finance at Tokyo stating that the government had issued treasury bills to the amount of 10,000,000 yen payable December 15, and that the issue had no relation to the war finances of the government. The cablegram adds that the money market in Japan is "easy." The consul-general said that these treasury bills will be disposed of in Japan.

[By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.] WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—The officials of the State Department do not care to pass an opinion upon the legality from a legal standpoint on the action of the Russian prize court at Vladivostok in the case of the Arabic, as reported in today's press dispatches, until some obscure points in the decision are cleared up.

TALE OF FIGHTING
AT PORT ARTHUR.

CHEFOO, Aug. 5, 8 a.m.—[By Asiatic Cable.] S. A. Serебренник, who was a passenger on the British steamer Hispania which sank in an explosion off the coast of Pigeon Bay July 14, who was among the refugees who arrived here yesterday on German steamer Sulbury, consented to be interviewed today. According to his version, the fighting before Port Arthur, from July 2 to July 23 inclusive, was directed against the last of the outer defenses, namely Wolf's Green and Christ Hills situated North and East of the city.

The Japanese captured Wolf's and Christ Hills but failed to take Christ Hill, which was the only outpost held by the Russians when Serебренник left Port Arthur. A Port Arthur newspaper estimated the Russian loss at 200 killed and 800 wounded and the Japanese loss at 17,000 killed and wounded. It was also estimated that the Japanese fired one hundred and twenty-five thousand rounds of shrapnel. The ground was covered with broken shells.

THE DIFFERENT STORIES.

Serебренник, who is a Russian, held contracts to supply artillery, but he was suspected of being a spy and was confined separately. His information regarding conditions at Port Arthur was derived chiefly from a newspaper which gave a detailed account of the Chinese refugees differ from that of Serебренник. They say that the Japanese were only two miles from the fortress when they left. Mail including newspapers was still arriving at Port Arthur.

Two THOUSAND GUNS.

The main force of the Russian army defending Port Arthur is now inside the numerous permanent forts, which constitute the fortress. They have 2,000 guns sweeping the plains over which the Japanese must march. An assault is expected August 15. There was a general confidence prevailing at Port Arthur.

SALT LAKE CITY, (Utah) Aug. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A special dispatch from Caliente, Nev., under date of today says that President W. A. Clark of the Salt Lake Route arrived here last night on a special train, and after remaining for a brief period, left for the front to inspect the line so far completed, which is to a point 98 miles west of Caliente. GRAND EXCURSION TO OCEANSIDE

Friday and Saturday, August 5 and 6, 1904.

If the man or woman who is seeking a home in the pleasantest and healthiest spot in California, or the investor who seeks immediate returns that will double and redouble within a short time, will in justice to themselves take this day off, an outing you owe yourselves, and go to OCEANSIDE, you may see the most beautifully located city on the whole Southern Coast of California, where a hundred dollars will (if invested now) earn as much as a thousand when values have reached the top. The beauties of OCEANSIDE cannot be adequately described, the magnificent view from the crest overlooking the city and ocean must simply be seen to be appreciated. That OCEANSIDE is destined for a great future is not denied by anyone acquainted with its location and surroundings. The productive soil and fertile valleys that surround it will support and make a city.

OCEANSIDE now has the Santa Fe Railroad and is the junction of the Fallbrook and Escondido branches, and is directly in line of the proposed Electric line to San Diego. Some recent developments in that direction has caused an awakening at OCEANSIDE and vicinity, but prior to this awakening, the OCEANSIDE DEVELOPMENT CO., foreseeing the importance of this place, made purchases of thousands of dollars worth of the choicest property there, and the same liberal spirit, the same determination, which has characterized the management and upbuilding of the city of LONG BEACH will be continued at OCEANSIDE.

All that can be promised any beach resort will be fulfilled at OCEANSIDE. There is no speculation as to whether or not the place will be a success. Its very location, with its peculiar natural advantages which it holds over other beaches along the Coast, assures its future, and the strongest thing in its favor is the price at which homes can be secured. The profits that are repeatedly taken from beach property we do not now pay, but can reap them in the near future. This is one of the very few opportunities offered you to get in absolutely at the start and on the ground floor, as present prices will not remain long, as the far-sighted investor will avail himself of these figures. And the result is an advanced price when you want it.

WORLD RECORD OF DR. SMITH.

Negro With Stitched Heart Lives Six Days.

Death Finally Caused by a Foreign Substance.

Police Surgeon Treasures Grensome Souvenirs.

If you ever want to stab a man through the heart and expect Dr. Smith to be around to sew up the hole, and save you from the hangman, he sure and have a clean blade.

Police Surgeon A. M. Smith performed the heroic operation a week ago yesterday on a dusky negro named William Smith, and the patient, who had not six minutes to live when the young surgeon came to the situation, lived more than six days.

In the opinion of the physicians at the autopsy yesterday that but for the probable introduction into the pericardium, or heart-sack, of some foreign substance with the blade that caused the awful wound, the patient would now be back at his job of driving an automobile.

Several operations of a like kind are on record in the medical books, where the patients have lived for from one to three days, the most recent one having been performed in Paris, the patient, who was in the case, having lived for four days, but it failed to live the lot of Dr. Smith to beat the world's record and have his man live for almost seven days.

Wide attention has been attracted to the Los Angeles case, which briefly was this: On Thursday, July 28, William Smith was rushed to the Receiving Hospital with the blood gushing from his heart from a stab inflicted by another colored man, named "Big Green." There was no time for delay, but it failed to live the lot of Dr. Smith to beat the world's record and have his man live for almost seven days.

The heart was also given to Dr. Smith. On Thursday, July 28, William Smith was rushed to the Receiving Hospital with the blood gushing from his heart from a stab inflicted by another colored man, named "Big Green." There was no time for delay, but it failed to live the lot of Dr. Smith to beat the world's record and have his man live for almost seven days.

It was a great and heroic operation, but it failed to live the lot of Dr. Smith as it can be told. The patient was taken to the County Hospital and also had the careful attention of Dr. Smith and the physicians in charge of that hospital.

From the first the injured man declared he felt first rate, and at 5 o'clock yesterday morning, the seventh day, made the same declaration and again for the last time. He was given a glass of milk, which he drank with a relish and was engaged in jocular conversation with Dr. Smith when he suddenly took a spasm and died.

INTEREST IN AUTOPSY.
Dr. George W. Campbell, Coroner's surgeon, performed an autopsy to definitely determine the character of the wound, at the moratorium of Brees Bros. early in the afternoon. He probably never performed one more skillfully nor in the presence of a more interested audience. Closely crowded about the operating table were Dr. A. M. Smith, the most vitally interested of all; Dr. D. C. Barber, superintendent of the County Hospital; Dr. E. T. Townsend, medical students, Detective Paul Flanagan, Times reporter and several other persons.

The outer cuticle of the chest was all healed up with the exception of the opening left for drainage and laid open by a strip of linen. When the pericardium was exposed by cutting away a great trap door of the ribs, the openings were all found nicely healed up and a healthy condition.

A piece of the pericardium, containing about five square inches, in the center of which is the stitched-up dagger wound, was then cut out and given to Dr. Smith as a professional souvenir. In this case, this was a cutting over the heart, there was a cramping of necks and quiet exclamations among the doctors, for the upper surface of the heart as it lay exposed to view, instead of being smooth and firm, was in a poor condition.

The organ was minutely inspected with the deepest interest by all the professional men, and it was found that the cut was perfectly healed, the edges being smooth and the skin tightly grown into the flesh. The heart was pronounced perfect condition.

Dr. Campbell then lifted the heart from the sack in which there seemed to be a normal quantity of water, while nature has provided to prevent friction by the covering the heart.

The organ was minutely inspected with the deepest interest by all the professional men, and it was found that the cut was perfectly healed, the edges being smooth and the skin tightly grown into the flesh. The heart was pronounced perfect condition.

It was then cut down through the center, when it was discovered that the point of the dagger with which the victim was stabbed had entered the cavity of the heart, but only the dark scar was in evidence, this portion of the wound having healed like the others.

There was a unanimous agreement that death was caused by septic pericarditis, or inflammation of the pericardium, which condition was probably caused by the introduction of some foreign substance, but for this circumstance the patient would have more than likely entirely recovered.

The heart was also given to Dr. Smith. On Thursday, July 28, William Smith was rushed to the Receiving Hospital with the blood gushing from his heart from a stab inflicted by another colored man, named "Big Green." There was no time for delay, but it failed to live the lot of Dr. Smith to beat the world's record and have his man live for almost seven days.

UNCLE SAM LANDED HIM.

Sharper Who Operated Here in New Orleans Jail.

William Thompson Arrested in Crooked Career.

Postoffice Inspector Tells of His Schemes.

The jail at New Orleans is a man who, as a grifter upon various business communities, has left a trail of bills from Los Angeles and San Diego to the Gulf of Mexico. In California he was known as William Thompson; in Arizona he was variously known as L. Kruger, L. Krower, Cook, and other names. His arrest is due to the

of goods on credit, advertised extensively, and paid for nothing. The goods he bought on credit he sold for cash at a sacrifice, and before the bills from the wholesalers became due he skipped out with the proceeds of his robbery.

The next heard of him was at Tucson, Ariz., where, under the name of Leonard Krower, he repeated what he had done here, and at San Diego. He then took up several thousand dollars at the expense of other merchants. Next he went to Douglas, and again repeated his robbery of the wholesale merchants, but was unknown to them. His name is not known, but it was at Douglas that he took a step too far. Having given a mortgage upon certain restaurant property, he went to Black Rock, Nev., and professed to be the owner of mortgaged property in Arizona. He was arrested by the police, and when he was secured to sixty days in jail. He served that sentence.

Shaking the dust of Arizona off his feet, he took a train to El Paso (hereafter) next jumped to El Paso. There he contracted for the opening of a big store. He rented a place, employed carpenters and other workmen to fit it up, but it was never opened, for by representing that he had unlimited capital, established a credit. Then he had a stock of goods sent to his store on approval, payment being for the purpose of tracing the man's record. That record shows that Thompson is a man whose dealings are a menace to the wholesale business in any community. He is known to have been a member of the underworld in both city and San Diego. It is probable that some of his victims in this city will be sent to New Orleans to testify against him.

He had been left to the State courts. Thompson would probably have been executed if he had been tried for his crimes, but he escaped punishment but when he began his fraudulent game through the mail.

LOCAL POLITICS.
BARD WAVE'S
GRAND SWEEP.Dashing Over Bulwarks of Espee Machine.Flint Already Carried Out to Sea by Ebb Tide.Reform Victory is Assured in Most Districts.Gaining strength hourly the wave of public opinion favoring Senator Bard's reselection, that months ago carried all before it in the country districts, is dashing up against and over the bulwarks of the Espee machine in Los Angeles and San Pedro.Victory for the reform forces is already assured in six of the nine Assembly districts in Los Angeles county. In one of the two remaining districts in which an election this year has been held. Already the ebb tide has carried Candidate Flint far out to sea.But one of the eleven legislators who will be elected from this county is conceded to the machine.Senator Bard against the field is the way the political dole book figures the results of next Tuesday's Republican primaries.In seven of the nine Assembly districts of the county at least one candidate is pledged to support Senator Bard's candidacy to the United States Senate, unless otherwise instructed by the county convention.There are four other Senatorial aspirants in the race, but not a candidate for Assembly or Senate has declared for any one of them. The opposition is aligned with a candidate who will decide to express his Senatorial preferences until after the county convention.In every Los Angeles precinct west of Main street, and in every country precinct outside of San Pedro and Redondo Bard's sentiment predominates. It is to the Flints Sixth, Seventh, Eighth and Ninth wards of Los Angeles and to a few scattering outside precincts that the machine forces look for the strength to defeat Bard's instructions in the convention.In four of the Assembly districts the election of anti-machine Assemblymen is conceded by the machine bosses themselves. These are Goodrich in the Sixth, Smith in the Seventh, Keim in the Ninth and McCartney in the Twelfth.It is generally conceded by politicians that the machine will lose in Assembly Districts Nos. 6 and 7.In the districts Nos. 7 and 8 both sides are claiming victory. While the Bard candidates think they have the better of the argument in each district, the two should properly be placed in the balance.The Seventy-Third Assembly District will probably return a machine nominee.The Thirty-fifth Senatorial District is strongly pro-Bard, and the machine has nominated his candidate in this district in the interest of his fate.A three-cornered fight is on in the Thirty-seventh Senatorial District, which is placed in the doubtful column.

Goodrich, a member of six Assemblymen and one Senator, is particularly certain to be anti-machine. Two Assembly districts and one Senatorial district are doubtful. One Assembly district will probably return a machine nominee.Only a sufficient number would give to the machine enough votes to defeat Bard's instructions in the county convention.

HOW THEY STAND.

Assembly candidates from the nine Los Angeles districts have declared themselves to date as follows:Sixty-first Assembly District—John A. Goodrich has declared for Bard; John York of Pasadena has also declared for Bard. Goodrich's election is conceded by the machine. The district was secured for a machine man who might make a raid against Goodrich with even a semblance of success, but nothing came of it.Sixty-eighth Assembly District—W. A.
Thompson of Pomona has declared for Bard. This is the only district that Bard has not been beaten down in wherever possible. L. D. Swartzent: a dentist living on Boyle Heights, is the choice of the Ninth Ward machine.Swartzent has promised to support whatever the machine wants. This district is controlled by a country precinct.
Swartzent does not expect to be elected. He was selected by the machine for the reason that he could keep the Ninth Ward in line until he got elected. It would do the most good if either Walker or Thompson could have the machine support if they would enter into a secret agreement to support the machine candidate. This however, both have refused to do.Seventy-ninth Assembly District—C. J.
Walker of Boyle Heights has announced that in the absence of instructions, he will support Senator Bard; H. W.
Thompson of San Dimas has declined to express a choice in the Senatorial race.He is known to be friendly to Bard, and he has been beaten down in every place wherever possible.L. D. Swartzent: a dentist living on Boyle Heights, is the choice of the Ninth Ward machine.Swartzent has promised to support whatever the machine wants.This is necessary because the precinct caucuses for the county convention were set aside by the committee at its meeting last week, it at the same time carrying the plan by which the delegates to the State convention were nominated.The machine candidate was nominated at the election which will be called that they want such a pumping plant.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Dr. Boller's Message.

Rev. B. F. Boller, pastor of Olivet Congregational Church, will deliver a lecture this afternoon at 2:30 in Temple Auditorium on the title, "Message of the Twentieth Century."

On Telepathy.

The lecture on "Telepathic Communication" by Dr. Alexander J. McIver-Tyndall booked for Blanchard Hall Sunday afternoon should prove attractive to all. The lecture will be delivered at the usual hour and will be the last of the public series for the present.

Tanner's Melon Picnic.

Dr. Tanner will give a watermelon feast at Eastlake Park at 2 p.m. Saturday in honor of the twenty-fourth anniversary of the breaking of his fast in New York in 1880. He will give a detailed history of that period of abstinence, after which about 250 melons will be served free.

Insane Child.

Oliver Rooney, a boy of seven, was picked up at Wilmington yesterday and taken to the County Hospital, apparently insane. The lad said his father lives at Highland and his mother at Long Beach. He is the youngest insane ward ever taken to the County Hospital.

Simpson Improving.

R. D. Simpson, the Southern Pacific conductor who was terribly injured Monday night by falling from his train here, Bakersfield, was brought to the city yesterday and placed in the Sisters' Hospital. Both legs were amputated in Bakersfield but the patient has recovered from the shock of the operation and strong hopes for his recovery are entertained.

Tanner on Nostrums.

Dr. H. F. Tanner, the famous "Master," delivered an address before the W.C.T.U. in the First Methodist Church yesterday afternoon, taking for his subject: "Patent Medicines and the Law." Dr. Tanner said he had a large house and made a most excellent talk. He declared it to be his belief that more alcohol was consumed by users of patent nostrums than in the drinking of whisky and beer.

Gun Lost Again.

Sid Perry, the black cattle king of Texas, is in trouble again on account of his carelessness. His gun was packed to Los Angeles from the wild and wooly Lone Star State. Yesterday Perry reported to the police that some one had again stolen the big "barber" from his car at No. 1020 Third Street. Perry's gun was stolen the first time Sunday, and the day following Louis Johnson, a "darktown" swell was arrested and convicted of the theft.

Curfew Will be Enforced.

Beginning tonight the curfew ordinance will be rigidly enforced, declares Chief of Police James C. Tamm. He has been curfew ordinances before, but they have invariably been dead letters. Only occasionally have they been enforced. The reason for this has in all probability been the lack of a proper method of sounding. Now that means have been provided for giving warning in all parts of the city, all failures to comply with the law will be punished.

Charged With Forgery.

Rufus Ybarra, formerly a bellboy employed at the Jonathan Club, was wanted for trial on charges of forgery. Ybarra is said to have worked a smooth game on the management by telephoning to the club on the night of July 21 and representing himself to be George W. Elliott of the Burlington Railroad. He said if a writ of habeas corpus for $19 would be honored and when answered in the affirmative a messenger boy was sent for the money. As soon as it was secured it Ybarra disappeared. Last night the boy claimed the detectives got the wrong party. Two Men Still Missing.

L. E. Nevius, the missing supply man of the Harvey eating-house system, has not been located, though thorough search has been made and his description has been published and sent to every newspaper in the state. It is believed that persons who have hired a car with a woman prior to his departure are certain it was Sunday instead of Monday afternoon, and that his companion was Mrs. Nevius. The last news of the man was received before 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, when he told Manager Snyder that he intended to go to Anaheim. James Laraman, the other man who disappeared, is still missing.

BREVITIES.

Subscribers to The Times are offered a $1.50 Columbia graphophone at cost of franchise. This is a model which includes a single record of your own selection. The price of gold-molded records under this arrangement is 25 cents each (former charge 50 cents each). The machine can be heard to play at The Times' office, where it is on exhibition daily. The plan will be explained fully to anyone calling at The Times' Graphophone Department.

Real estate operators: The Times Real Estate Number to be issued early in August will be designed for distribution among home seekers, settlers and tourists. It should contain the business office early, as only a limited amount of advertising will be received for it. The "Liner" rate will be 3 cents per word.

The Times' home phone number has been changed from Exchange 1-2000 to "The Times." Simple is the operator for "The Times," no prefix or number being necessary.

Mr. O. T. Nichols will speak on the subject "Young Men and the Temperance Cause" this evening at Trinity Church, Ninth and Grand avenue.

The San Francisco office of The Times is located in room 14, Chronicle Building. Telephone Red 4-1300.

Insane Child.

Oliver Rooney, a boy of seven, was picked up at Wilmington yesterday and taken to the County Hospital, apparently insane. The lad said his father lives at Highland and his mother at Long Beach. He is the youngest insane ward ever taken to the County Hospital.

Simpson Improving.

R. D. Simpson, the Southern Pacific conductor who was terribly injured Monday night by falling from his train here, Bakersfield, was brought to the city yesterday and placed in the Sisters' Hospital. Both legs were amputated in Bakersfield but the patient has recovered from the shock of the operation and strong hopes for his recovery are entertained.

Tanner on Nostrums.

Dr. H. F. Tanner, the famous "Master," delivered an address before the W.C.T.U. in the First Methodist Church yesterday afternoon, taking for his subject: "Patent Medicines and the Law." Dr. Tanner said he had a large house and made a most excellent talk. He declared it to be his belief that more alcohol was consumed by users of patent nostrums than in the drinking of whisky and beer.

Gun Lost Again.

Sid Perry, the black cattle king of Texas, is in trouble again on account of his carelessness. His gun was packed to Los Angeles from the wild and wooly Lone Star State. Yesterday Perry reported to the police that some one had again stolen the big "barber" from his car at No. 1020 Third Street. Perry's gun was stolen the first time Sunday, and the day following Louis Johnson, a "darktown" swell was arrested and convicted of the theft.

Curfew Will be Enforced.

Beginning tonight the curfew ordinance will be rigidly enforced, declares Chief of Police James C. Tamm. He has been curfew ordinances before, but they have invariably been dead letters. Only occasionally have they been enforced. The reason for this has in all probability been the lack of a proper method of sounding. Now that means have been provided for giving warning in all parts of the city, all failures to comply with the law will be punished.

Charged With Forgery.

Rufus Ybarra, formerly a bellboy employed at the Jonathan Club, was wanted for trial on charges of forgery. Ybarra is said to have worked a smooth game on the management by telephoning to the club on the night of July 21 and representing himself to be George W. Elliott of the Burlington Railroad. He said if a writ of habeas corpus for $19 would be honored and when answered in the affirmative a messenger boy was sent for the money. As soon as it was secured it Ybarra disappeared. Last night the boy claimed the detectives got the wrong party. Two Men Still Missing.

L. E. Nevius, the missing supply man of the Harvey eating-house system, has not been located, though thorough search has been made and his description has been published and sent to every newspaper in the state. It is believed that persons who have hired a car with a woman prior to his departure are certain it was Sunday instead of Monday afternoon, and that his companion was Mrs. Nevius. The last news of the man was received before 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, when he told Manager Snyder that he intended to go to Anaheim. James Laraman, the other man who disappeared, is still missing.

BREVITIES.

Subscribers to The Times are offered a $1.50 Columbia graphophone at cost of franchise. This is a model which includes a single record of your own selection. The price of gold-molded records under this arrangement is 25 cents each (former charge 50 cents each). The machine can be heard to play at The Times' office, where it is on exhibition daily. The plan will be explained fully to anyone calling at The Times' Graphophone Department.

Real estate operators: The Times Real Estate Number to be issued early in August will be designed for distribution among home seekers, settlers and tourists. It should contain the business office early, as only a limited amount of advertising will be received for it. The "Liner" rate will be 3 cents per word.

The Times' home phone number has been changed from Exchange 1-2000 to "The Times." Simple is the operator for "The Times," no prefix or number being necessary.

LUCKY TREASURE HUNTER HERE.

WANTS TO DIG IN PATIO OF OLD PLAZA CHURCH.

Seems to be Possessed of Remarkable Power of Scouting Buried Valuables—Made Great Strike on "Dob's" Ranch on North Side of San Joaquin River—Other Finds.

The man who buried his talent for safe keeping, as told in the Good Book, wouldn't have had much of finding the talent again if he had happened to live in these down-to-date times and Martin Lewis had heard of his performance.

Martin Lewis is a buried-treasure hunter, and the thought of cached money or jewelry in the ground is his very meat and drink. This sort of thing has such a fascination for Lewis that he has been at it off and on, for a lifetime. He has been marvellously successful in the game, too.

Had failure followed this man's efforts the world would have laughed at his attempts; but with success so often leading him to the disclosure of buried riches, those who know of his undertakings wonder and question among themselves how such things can be. Lewis is a success as a fortune hunter.

This grizzled old prospector arrived in Los Angeles yesterday, intent upon taking up the search for various treasures rumored to have been placed in the earth here during the days of the old Spanish régime. More particularly, Lewis devotes his time to locating the boxes of gold and jewels.

The man who buried his talent for safe keeping, as told in the Good Book, wouldn't have had much of finding the talent again if he had happened to live in these down-to-date times and Martin Lewis had heard of his performance.

Lewis has spent nearly half a century in mining and prospecting. He has put in forty-eight years in California and Arizona, and during that time he is said to have been instrumental in turning up several buried fortunes.

On the "Dob's" ranch, on the north side of the San Joaquin River, and about ten miles below Fireball Ferry, Lewis headed a party which made a successful search for buried Spanish treasure, and succeeded in digging out $14,957, which is supposed to have been buried in 1850. This was found by Lewis and his son, in 1894.

Another attempt of this prospector is to locate the old rectory of the Old Plaza Church to allow digging in the patio. Frands Orrice, an aged man who has been working for years, was insisted before her death that she knew exactly the spot in the court of the old rectory where a great treasure had been buried, and it is said she gave certain Spanish initials which care for her son before her death, the measurements to indicate the spot.

The prospector with the keen scent for buried fortunes has now found the Cahuenga Pass trail of $20,000 worth of gold and jewels.

He is looking for the old rectory of the old rectory where a great treasure had been buried, and it is said she gave certain Spanish initials which care for her son before her death, the measurements to indicate the spot.

Trusted Hand Missing from McNally Ranch.

Where is William Ring?
Altadena Asks.

Foul Play Suspected and Officers on Case.

Where is William Ring?
Where and why he went and unanswered questions, asked over and over by the officials at the McNally ranch, and Altadena, were the topics of fairly-wants to know.

William Ring, trusted employee at the country home of the late Andrew McNally, has disappeared. He was last seen the morning of July 11. He did money by this man Hardwick, who is a responsible party. He then worked for me and was paid off in full, leaving me on a "little bat." He later wrote me that he was working at Altadena but would like to come to Los Angeles soon and agreed to report for duty on a certain date. That night I was routed out of bed about 10 o'clock to take over the chores at Gandy's to party who wanted to see me very much. At the other end of the line I found a "barkeep" who reported the important news that that party wished him to take me to the "old ranch."

This was the last I heard of William Ring until yesterday. He is a good worker; a fine man about a place. His little weakness is his only occasional sin.

There is a suspicion that Ring may have been made away with for the money he carried.

TOTEM SACK MAN IS GONE.

Treasurer of Central Labor Council Missing.

Three Hundred and Eighty Dollars Gone, Too.

Desperate Efforts to Keep Facts from Unions.

The treasury of the Los Angeles Central Council of Labor is $300, and the late treasurer, Frederick C.
Little, is missing, from his accustomed haunts. There is a close connection between these two facts.

Little, who was delegate to the Central Council of Labor from the Workers' Union, No. 406, and who also held the office of treasurer of the Council of Labor, last Monday went to the bank which has been the depository for the council funds, and drew out all standing to its credit $300.

For the past year Little has been an employee of the Southern California Hardwood Manufacturing Company of East Ninth street. He stated to officials Saturday that he was going to Santa Monica for a few days' rest.
He had made arrangements to leave his work to his wife, who had been working for him.

It is one of the first stores Los Angeles, and is a business landmark.
It has kept pace with the rapidly-expanding city.

It was started in the sixties by a man named John C. Dotter, who stayed with the old store under one under one firm name and then another until he died in March, 1892. His widow and children now live in the same house on the ranch; his son, George C. Dotter, has taken up the work where the energetic father left off.

The family still lives in the house Dotter built on the corner of Bunker Hill avenue and Temple street, where they have resided for thirty years.

Dotter came across the plains to Salt Lake City in the late fifties, with an expedition of 1,000 men, and joined the troops. From Salt Lake, he finally drifted on to Los Angeles, arriving in 1869.

When he went to look for a styling site for a new furniture store, he chose Commercial street between Main and Loma Vista to collect $75 due him from John Hardwick. He also said that if he were there he would return the same evening. Hardwick has been communicated with, and Ring has not been seen since.

Forty dollars back wages is due him from the old hacienda contain to this day furniture from the Dotter factory.

HAYS RIDES WILDLY IN TO BE ARRESTED.

TOM HAYS, the debonair defaulter, burst Revere-like into the city yesterday after a wild ride, all night ride over mountain trails, to give himself up to the officers and give the lie to the story that he "Jumped" his bond.

He scornfully presented himself for arrest and was released on bail.

His arrest, based on the three-month-old indictments was a dramatic scene yesterday afternoon.

The issuing of the warrants again this time is claimed by Hays's friend to be a breach of faith; they claim it is done so Hays will not have an opportunity of his attorney, who would not tell his whereabouts, that they would produce him at a certain time and place yesterday afternoon.

The time came for him to be produced but Tom Hays did not come. They sent Judge Smith to Santa Monica at 7:30 A.M. to get him. Santa Monica is a mile from the court, and the clock hands began to drag by. Five minutes of solid darkness passed. Then the door was flung open and Tom Hays entered.

Hays was routed out of bed and told the condition of things. He immediately saddled a horse and started back over the black mountain roads at a break-neck pace. They got back to the court in the morning.

As before, Hays had a surety company on his bond. Judge Smith fixed the amount at $500 in each case, making $1,000 that Hays is now under arrest.

The warrants are based on the original Riverside complaint issued in May, charging him with having defaulted as cashier of the Orange Groves' National Bank of Riverside.

The friends of Hays claim that he would not consent to the postponement of these cases at the time, and that they finally agreed he should come to Los Angeles, and that the warrant was placed in the hands of the Riverside District Attorney, "on ice," and that they should remain there, idle until Hays had been tried in the Riverside jail while the book was here.

When the news came that Hays was to be arrested, he was in the mountains back of Malibu, where he had gone to look at coal claims.

Wednesday afternoon Jack Henry and Sam Coburn waited. From 7:30 A.M. to 10:30 A.M. Coburn sat in the doorway, waiting. He rode hard all afternoon and half the night, arriving at the camp at midnight.

CITY REALTY'S VAST INCREASE.

FINAL FOOTING OF TAX ROLL IS NOW COMPLETED.

Seventeen Million Dollars Greater Valuation Than Last Year. Trained Nurse Will Be Employed for Public Schools—More Changes to Be Made in City Hall.

The reductions ordered by the Board of Equalization on the city tax rolls have been made and yesterday the footings of the twenty books were taken off.

These show that the total valuation of all property for the year 1894-1895 is $12,716,528 or about $17,000,000 more than last year.

The total valuation of all land is $60,000,000. The improvements aggregate $17,164,650 and the personal and property exclusive of money in $15,000. The money assessed amounts to $297,451. Added to these figures is $1,535,233 in unsecured personal property upon which the Assessor has already collected the taxes.

The valuation of all property in West Los Angeles "as old city" is $11,785,571. The annex of 1894 is assessed for $11,166,615 and for 1895 for $1,624,750.

Should the rate remain the same as last year ($1.40 on each $100 of assessed valuation) the city will receive $1,190,000 during the coming year for taxes.

The rate will be fixed by the Committee of the Whole but the time of meeting has not yet been set.

President Bush is away on his vacation and will not return until next week, and inasmuch as the sessions of the board will be very important it is not likely any action will be taken until all the members are present.

TRAINED NURSES.

FOR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The Finance Committee of the Council has practically decided to recommend that one trained nurse be employed in the public schools. This is simply intended as an experiment. If it proves successful others will be added from time to time as fast as the finances will permit.

The movement was started by the Board of Education and the Board of Health and committees from these boards have been working hard for some time to persuade the Council to take up the project.

The Council will recommend the employment of two nurses, but the Finance Committee will only favor the employment of one until it is assured that the expenditure of money in this direction is successful.

The project has worked out successfully in other cities and in a small way it has been done here although no appropriation has ever been made by the Council or by the school board.

The most that has been done was through the agency of the College Settlement Association and like organizations.

In New York City there is said to be entrance to every four schools.

Friends of the movement point out that a nurse will often detect sickness in a pupil when it would be unnoticed by the teacher or by the parents of the city's new emigrants will be able to see that the boys and girls keep themselves clean and that the schoolrooms are kept in as sanitary condition as possible.

The nurse will give her entire time to this work and will receive a salary of $75 a month.

MORE CHANGES.

IN THE CITY HALL.

More changes are to be made in the City Hall.

Owing to the great increase in business certain of the city departments are expected to have larger quarters in order to handle their work.

Last year the Tax and Licenses Collector made changes which cost the city upwards of $300, and then could hardly get along.

This year he has four more volumes of tax lists and absolutely no place to put them.

The Auditor is also much crowded.

The changes contemplated will relieve the congestion for a time but it will not be permanent.

A prominent city official said yesterday: "Enough money is spent every year in makeshifts and alterations to pay the interest on bonds sufficient to build a new City Hall."

Bids will be received the 15th instant for making the alterations. Rooms 4 and 5 formerly occupied by the building and electrical departments will be turned into rooms for the Auditor and the City Auditor. The departments formerly occupying these quarters will have rooms which are to be fitted up in what is now known as the "work room" and is used chiefly in working out some new work room in a now being built in the rear of the City Assessors' office.

Room 5 now used by the Auditor will be added to the City Tax and Licenses Collector's office.

The work of strengthening the floors of the building is progressing fairly well. This work was awarded to Peter Keenan and will cost $375.

On Burlington Avenue. The Street Superintendent and

Councilman McLeer, representing the Board of Public Works, yesterday afternoon inspected the work that has been done on Burlington Avenue between Ninth and Twelfth Streets. The Street Superintendent has accepted the work but it is not satisfactory to the property owners and they filed a protest. The matter came up before the City Council yesterday evening before the Board of Public Works and the Street Superintendent. The latter said last night that the work was well done and is satisfactory to himself and McLeer. Some of the people begin making objections as soon as work was begun on the street, and that they have kept it up ever since. He says that these people have a cobble-paved gutter instead of cement, and that in reality the cause of all of the trouble.

Bellboys Worthy.

Managers of hotels and their bell boys are indignant because of the recent action of the State Commission in ordering that photographs be taken of all the bell boys employed in local hotels.

They say that every one is supposed to be honest until proved otherwise and they consider this exactation as an insult.

Several of the hotel proprietors declare that they will not obey the order although they say they do not doubt the action of the commission passed the resolution with good motives.

Water Revenue.

The report of the Water Department for the past month shows that the total receipts were $60,163.95 and that the expenses of operation were $59,962. There was a cash balance on hand July of $19,182.18 which added to the difference between receipts and expenses leaves a balance of $15,616.78 on hand August 1.

City Hall Notes.

City Tax and License Collector Johnson filed a report yesterday showing that $37,352.60 was received from the State Commission. The members of the Lodging House Association are now paying the license required for their business without protest.

The ordinance governing the hotel business was drawn up in accordance with the request of the association but the members were nevertheless slow in making payments. The leaders have now decided to pay and proprietors of smaller houses are following their example.

Residents in the vicinity of Hallidays Avenue and Forty-sixth Street have petitioned the Council to order the opening of the street from Santa Barbara Street to Forty-sixth Street to a width of fifty feet.

Horned Owl for Eastside Zoo.

Russell Gates, a small boy who lives at No. 2015 Maple Avenue presented a horned owl which he had captured. The bird will be put in the Eastlake Park zoo. According to the keeper of the zoo the bird is worth about $30.

SCHUETZEN GANG IN ROUND-UP.

OFFICERS CORRAL RIOTERS IN LONG BEACH CITY.

"Bull" Williams Thoughtfully Gives Away Information of the Names and Wheresabouts of Some of His Associates and They are Gathered in Law's Representatives.

HIS PROMISE STANDS.

Mrs. C. L. CHAPIN WINS.

When Mrs. Clara L. Chapin wanted to sell five acres of her property between Washington and Sixteenth Streets in Abner L. Ross she did so but there was a difficulty in the way.

But just about the same time there were lively events down on Long Beach. It came about through the "forgetfulness" of "Bull" Williams, who was sentenced for five months by Justice Young the previous afternoon.

It was "Bull" and two others who charged the charge of the barkeeper at Schuetzen Park and, after he had pleaded guilty to two charges, he informed Mr. Ross to go to Deputy Constable to make him stand.

Williams thoughtfully gave away information of the names and whereabouts of some of his associates and they are gathered in Law's Representatives.

Like rats leaving a sinking ship the rowdies who achieved notoriety at Schuetzen Park last Sunday fled from the city on Wednesday, and the Lilly Club on New High street was deserted that night.

There weren't enough members present to form a quorum, and after resolutions of sympathy had been passed, a motion to adjourn was carried.

But just about the same time there were lively events down on Long Beach.

It came about through the "forgetfulness" of "Bull" Williams, when he was sentenced for five months by Justice Young the previous afternoon.

It was "Bull" and two others who charged the charge of the barkeeper at Schuetzen Park and, after he had pleaded guilty to two charges, he informed Mr. Ross to go to Deputy Constable to make him stand.

"Not on your life," responded Williams. "I can't do it." Williams, it is said, is a dirt-shame, he said: "I can't do it." Two dozen witnesses to show that I never monkeyed with no soda water."

That volunteer offer was pie to the constable; he was just wanting a chance to get back on the track of the birds that had flown.

"Well, Williams," said he, "you know it's the duty of the constable to summon any witness you may want; so if you give me a name I'll get him."

The "Bull" didn't understand just what was doing, and before he knew it had given the names of some of his whereabouts about half a dozen of the toughs who were in the melee last Sunday. They were stated to be living under cover at the Burton House on Long Beach, and apparently Constable Holmes had come down to the same town on Wednesday evening to gather in the gang if he could.

On that same day of June 3, it is alleged that Mrs. Bruce was the owner of a certain vehicle, to wit, an automobile, and the strange monster as it appeared was driving along the street and vexation the animal jumped and plunged so that Mrs. Holmes was thrown against the cement curb and became right smart. And both the automobile and the mow-cow went on their respective ways.

Now the mistress of the mow-cow wants $500 damages from the mistress of the automobile.

CONVERTED HIS WIFE. Morris Burns, who has his home at North Pasadena, was committed to Patton yesterday. He lives in a little four-room house and has become possessed of the idea that J. E. Fleming, who lives in a one-room cottage in his yard, has converted his wife, as well as a lot of other people, to a new religion. In telling about his wife's conversion he did not fully坦白 up to his conductor that he was a physician, who stated he was a man known as "Deutchy," who was side by side with William in the fracas, and that he was an officer in the militia when he raided a place on Pico street last Monday in the attempt to drag net some of the rioters.

Deutchy had his coat drawn over his head and was pretending to read Holmes bent down and pulled the man by the shoulder so as to get a square look at him.

It is alleged that Fonger was sulky, but didn't offer any opposition to the constable's demands. He was a witness for William. Fonger, who has a grievance against the Rayo Mining and Development Company, the Roanoke Investment Company and the members of the board of directors, and yesterday began suit for damages.

It is alleged that Fonger was a man who was not a warrior for you and you know who I am, so you'd better come along like a good dog."

HERMIS NOT A STARTER.

Great Republic Stakes Will Go Without Him.

When Worked for the Race He Pulls up lame.

American Winner at Cowes. Baseball Summaries.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SARATOGA (N. Y.), Aug. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] There is every probability that Hermis will not go to the post in the race for the Great Republic Stakes, worth $50,000, next Saturday. He was worked today for the race, and pulled up very lame. He may not run again, and have been spread for the last few days, but not until today was he shown to be in bad shape. Some of the trainers say that he cooled out all right, but such a competent judge as Tom Welch shook his head suspiciously when someone intimated that the horse would start Saturday.

This will take much interest out of the race, though it still leaves Waterbury and Delhi and others of lesser note to try conclusions.

KID MCCOY'S FUTURE.
POINTS TO LOS ANGELES.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "Kid McCoy," looking better than he ever did, passed through the city yesterday en route for Salt Lake City. He makes the surprising announcement that he will do battle with Jack Munroe in the Utah metropolis the first week in September, providing the Jeffries-Munroe battle fails in San Francisco. McCoy has received telegram from the Shriners' Athletic Club of Salt Lake City, and from Harry Pollock, Manager of Munroe, to the effect that the match is as good as made.

"I am back in the saddle, and am gunning for my man that is over my weight," said. "I am told in several lengthy telegrams from Pollock that there is likely to be a great hitch when it comes time to pick a referee for the contest between Munroe and Jeffries. I am not going to get involved in any of Munroe's trip to the West will not be in vain, for I am going on then to Los Angeles, and will make that place my home for at least two years. I am going to have certain interests there that will take up plenty of my attention."

SAN JOSE RACES.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SAN JOSE, Aug. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The second day's racing of the Pacific Coast Trotting Horse Breeders' Association furnished better sport than the opening day, and attracted a larger number of spectators. The weather was good and track fast. Every race was hotly contested and closely won.

The feature of the programme was the 2½ pace, captured by Kelly Briggs, a bay gelding by Baywater Wilkeson, owned by Silva & Wright. After taking the first heat in 2:09½, the gelding took the lead second by a narrow margin to Zolock, son of McKinney, but the owner was not caught napping again, and took the next two heats impressively.

Briggs, gelding, Briny K., by Starway, which won the 2:15 trot at Pottawatomie, repeated today, winning the same event here in straight heats.

Delilah, a bay filly by Zolock, owned by Ben Davis, showed class by taking the 1½ miles, futurity for two-year-old pacers in straight heats.

STRIKING CONTRAST.

Gaze on this picture. Frank P. Flint, former Southern Pacific attorney de facto, still a Southern Pacific worker to all intents and purposes, projected into the Senatorial race by the Southern Pacific Railroad, at the eleventh hour, after that corporation had betrayed Henry T. Oxnard, to whom certain of its high officials had pledged support.

Flint campaign instruments: The boycott; intimidation; coercion; personal abuse; falsehood. This is a plain statement of concealed truth, and not a partisan charge unsustained by fact.

Mark this: Flint "heelers," through letters and by personal visits to merchants, have obliquely, and at times directly, threatened certain merchants, known to be Bard men, with loss of trade if they persist in their allegiance to the Senator, and do not go over to the Flint camp. If this does not constitute boycott, intimidation and coercion, then the dictionary errs in its definition of those terms. The Times has heretofore called attention to the personal abuse of Senator Bard contained in certain Flint campaign literature, and the fact has been publicly admitted by Mr. Flint through the columns of the press, accompanied by the remarkable statement that he did not know what was contained in the literature which was sent out from his own headquarters, and over the compilation of which Flint and his managers "exercise personal supervision." The resort to falsehood and deception is apparent in the effort of an evening paper, which is opposed to Senator Bard and is for Flint (after joining the Southern Pacific in betraying Oxnard), to make it appear that Senator Bard's strength will eventually be thrown to either Flint or Oxnard. Nothing could be farther from the truth, nothing could be more palpably intended to deceive, nothing could be more maliciously false.

Following the familiar "machine" methods so well understood and so unscrupulously used by Flint and his Southern Pacific allies, the "colonization" of Flint "heelers" has begun. In the Fourth Ward a scheme has been discovered to "colonize" Precinct 37. Names and locations have been obtained of blocks of "floaters" who were taken into the ward before July 20 for the purpose of voting them in the forthcoming primary election.

Again, certain political aspirants have been officially notified that unless they "line up" for Flint, and stay "lined up" they might as well abandon their political hopes.

The "grafter" likewise, is persona grata in the Flint camp. His methods, conforming to the general scheme of the "Flint" campaign, are such as to make him useful to the "machine" managers. A certain well-known "grafter" is making himself obnoxious to business men by his persistent visits to them and his efforts to induce them to support Flint. He poses as the representative of a commercial organization which, he alleges, requests tradesmen to vote for the Southern Pacific candidate. This "grafter" is known to be in the pay of the Southern Pacific, yet he does not hesitate, when opportunity offers, to take business obtained; winking at the means, if the means can but attain the end.

Thomas R. Bard—free and independent; pledged to no one; to no special interests, to no corporation or combine of any kind whatever; an old-time Californian with a spotless name; with a magnificent Washington record behind him; a man of achievement; a Senator of high standing and influence among his colleagues; unswayed by the touch of the "machine" and "machine" methods; standing firm upon his record; backed by the great body of citizens; having large and valuable legislative experience; a man in every way fitted for the office.

His distinguished peers in the Senate speak truth when they say that his retirement would be a national and a State loss.

SOME CLOSED INCIDENTS.

Among them are:

(1.) The city printing contract; because the Superior Court decision rendered by Judge Conroy sustained the validity of the Council's action in making the current contract with The Times, and settled the disputed question. This journal is justified in its contention, viz., the utmost publicity for municipal transactions at the least competitive cost per one thousand copies of circulation. The incident is closed and no fair man will undertake to open it.

(2.) Bard and irrigation on the Lower Colorado. The facts and the records of Congress show conclusively that the Senator's course in this vital matter has been right, sensible, patriotic and for the public interests, as well as for the interests of the California and Arizona settlers directly concerned. That incident, too, is closed.

(3.) Bard and Statehood for Arizona. He took a firm stand, and a right stand, against the movement, started outside of the Territory, for joint Statehood; but he stands ready to vote for single Statehood when the proper time comes. This is precisely what the Arizona people want. The Senator had the sagacity to see that it would be unjust to Arizona to harness her up with New Mexico and bring in the two as one State, thus forever fore-stalling admission to the Union for them separately, to which they will be entitled in good time. Another incident closed, because the Senator's position has been logically maintained, because he has not been convicted of being an enemy to Arizona and because he has no occasion to reverse himself in this matter.

(4.) The charge of "graft" in the printing contract. This charge, too, has been met by The Times openly and squarely, and refuted by the facts adduced and published. The legality of the contract and the integrity of the Council's action have been finally adjudicated by the court decision already quoted. This journal, which has the city printing contract by the tale—the tale which the document itself tells in words and figures—is honestly giving the city the most publicity for its money; it is rendering a service in this regard that no other Los Angeles newspaper is capable of rendering; and men and brethren, don't permit the fact to escape from the recesses, corridors and galleries of your memories. Another incident that is closed and sealed—at least until some convicted and condemned newspaper or other sort of document tells the tale which the document itself tells in words and figures—is honestly giving the city the most publicity for its money; it is rendering a service in this regard that no other Los Angeles newspaper is capable of rendering; and men and brethren, don't permit the fact to escape from the recesses, corridors and galleries of your memories. Edith Hazel Patterson of South Flower street is entertaining the cousin, Miss Marie Moore of Chillicothe, Ohio, who is particularly attractive and winning girl, and has been the object of no little social attention during her stay. Miss Patterson has been attending Stanford, and intends to return to college in about two weeks.

Entertaining Booth.

There is one charming little woman interested in the Berliner Americaner who is taking for her cleverness and originality of design. Whenever she entertains her friends always expect something a little out of the ordinary, and they are never disappointed. She is Mrs. John Norton, who is in charge of the cigar and cigarette booth at the fete. This little place will be most attractive, for it is to be in oriental design, with all sorts of quaint hangings, and couches, and various gables, and the like. Girls and women who are to assist will all be garbed in the striking costumes of the Orient. Lending enchantment to the scheme will be low oriental lamps, which will cast a soft glow over the room. Mrs. Norton has already chosen a few others to assist, and they will be Mrs. Edith Merchant, Mrs. F. J. Flemming, and Miss Gertrude Bodding.

The bride was delayed in her arrival to the church because of the fact that the wedding was one day later than expected. The young couple will reside at Catalina.

Los Angeles Men Wed.

Wednesday evening the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Rogers at Long Beach was the scene of a very pretty wedding. Miss Grace C. Rogers was married to Louis D. Bailey of Los Angeles. Rev. Rogers, the father of the bride, performed the service. Mr. Bailey is a draughtsman in the office of a firm of Los Angeles architects. The bride came to California last November with her parents, from Wichita, Kan., and has since made a number of trips to the Orient. The wedding service was performed with great ceremony, and the couple stood beneath an arch of evergreens, in a corner of the parlor. After a short wedding trip, the young couple will make their home in this city. Among those present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Landry, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. WOULD OPPOSE TREE CUTTING.

ORANGE COUNTY RANCHERS ARE FOR NEW LEGISLATION.

Col. Finley of the Seventh Regiment Announces Many Changes in the Non-commissioned Staff and in the Various Companies—Damage Suit Compromised.

SANTA ANA, Aug. 4.—The Chamber of Commerce was addressed last night by W. C. Campbell of Los Angeles, national organizer for the National Irrigation Association, who presented the claims of his organization. The chamber voted its hearty cooperation in the work outlined by Mr. Campbell, and accepted unanimously an invitation to become a member of the national association. Mr. Campbell is organizing the Southern California section of the national association, and is upon a tour of all the cities, visiting commercial bodies and securing their help in his efforts. In addition to his speech last night Campbell urged the creation of legislation and public sentiment in opposition to the wholesale cutting of forests on the Southern California mountains, thus depriving the valleys of a large portion of their water supply, which is conserved by the presence of the trees.

Shirley in his action asked for $5000, but upon receipt of the money from the company withdrew his case. The hole into which he fell was left uncovered during the night time.

SANTA ANA NOTES.

Mrs. Ben. W. Turner, Miss Caroline Boyd left, today for Catalina, where she will spend the coming vacation.

No trace has been found of the body of Henry Meador, drowned at the mouth of Aliso Canyon day before yesterday. Searchers are still on the look out for him, he was washed ashore, and their search is anticipated by a reward of $25 which the dead man's brother, Albert Meador, has offered for the recovery of the body.

RESIDENCE BURNED.

The residence of James Campbell, at First and C streets, was totally destroyed by fire this afternoon.

James Campbell had been stricken from severe illness at hospital and while preparing supper, a gasoline stove exploded, scattering burning oil about the room. The flames spread quickly, getting beyond control before a key was found to open the front door.

COUNT'S LONG WALK.

Count della Genetra, Reggio Salvatore of Palermo, Sicily, arrived here last night, walking the railroad ties, and spent the night with a countryman named P. T. Giovannola. He claims to have a forged Count's card, and explains that he left his native land in 1901 against a wager that he could walk around the world, and return to his country by 1905. If he succeeds he alleges that he will receive a reward of $1000. The conditions stipulate that the Count must not solicit alms, and must walk the entire distance, with the exception of where it is necessary for him to cross oceans and rivers.
